

Safety Tips

- Keep all doors and windows locked.
- Don't give out personal information to anyone over the phone.
- Never open the door to strangers. Ask service people for an ID before opening the door.
- Have your social security or retirement check deposited directly into your bank account.

Outreach

Would you like Adult Victim Services to speak with your group?

Through outreach and education, our goal is to increase public and professional awareness about the problems of victimization and abuse of elders.

Contact Gloria Smith at 302-658-7174 ext. 15 or gsmith@dcjustice.org to discuss opportunities.

Eligibility

The Delaware Center for Justice offers services for crime victims who reside in New Castle County, both male or female, over 50 years of age and older, who have experienced any variety of crime including domestic and elderly abuse.

There is no charge for our services.

Funding

Adult Victim Services, administered by the Delaware Center for Justice, Inc., is funded through the Delaware Criminal Justice Council by the Department of Justice, office of Victims of Crime. The program is also funded through a state grant-in-aid and United Way Support.

The Delaware Center for Justice, Inc. (DCJ) is the leading non-profit organization in Delaware committed to transforming the quality of justice through advocacy, policy, and practice.

Our Program

The Adult Victim Services Program strives to help adult victims of crime in New Castle County. Older adults in the New Castle County area who have experienced crimes such as: robbery, purse snatching, theft, financial exploitation, offensive touching, destruction of property, and victims of Domestic Violence or sexual abuse can turn to the Delaware Center for Justice for help. Battering is abuse and when a family member physically harms another, is a form of domestic abuse.

If you or someone you know is residing in New Castle County, is 50 years of age or older, and is a victim of any kind of Crime-PLEASE CALL US.

Each client is treated with complete confidentiality.

We are available Monday through Friday, 9am to 5pm.
